SCOTSDALE

Special to The Courier

SCOTSDALE, May 22.—Upper Tyrone township Fayette county, will build a new school building in East Scottdale this year on a beautiful location the directors having purchased an acre and a half of land from the Joseph H. Stauffer estate through Real Estate Broker J. Stauffer. The site of the building is a desirable one, fronting 200 feet in the main street of East Scottdale and running back to a proposed street. The square is entirely surrounded by streets and alleys and gives the school a practically private location. The new building will be of brick and will have four rooms so arranged that two or four more rooms may be added in harmony with the architecture should occasion arise in the future to have more accommodations. The building will be seceded, and will have a complete heating plant. The plans have been sent to Harrisburg for approval and will be made to meet the requirements of the law for such buildings. With the building of the new school house there will be an abandonment of the present school buildings at East Scottdale and Walnut Hill, the new building to stand on high ground about 1200 feet directly east from the present East Scottdale building. The two old buildings will be sold by the board of directors. It is expected to have the new building completed and ready for occupancy when the fall term of school opens.

TODAY'S GAMES

The baseball game tomorrow afternoon at Ellsworth Park at 2:30 will stage the Lawrenceville team against the local team and it is believed that a good game is in prospect for the fans. Lawrenceville has played a fast game here in the past and there is interest in the sort of a team that they have this season.

PERMISSIBLE LAMPS

Bureau of Mines Issues Guide for Obtaining Approval.

The Bureau of Mines has just issued a list of Permissible Portable Lamps. This schedule sets forth the character of the tests at the conditions under which they will be made together with the fees that will be charged for testing the lamps.

It is the purpose of these tests to establish a list of portable electric lamps that will be suitable in all respects for the unusual requirements of mine work. All lamps that pass these tests will be officially approved by the bureau and all the mine inspectors will be notified of the bureau's action.

The Bureau of Mines considers a portable electric lamp to be permissible for use in gaseous mines if all the details of the lamp's construction are the same in all respects as those of the lamp that passed the inspection and the tests made by the bureau.

ORDER DIVIDED.

Railroads Are Handling Out Small Steel Tonages.

Full distribution of the recent order for 1,165 tons of bridge work by the Boston & Albany railroad, previously reported, has been announced.

The Pennsylvania Steel Company receives 615 tons, the American Bridge Company 400 tons, and L. F. Shoemaker & Co. 150 tons.

The Norfolk & Western railroad, as reported previously, has distributed 300 tons of work with independent shops, including 300 tons for an extension of its Roanoke shops and 300 tons of bridge work.

THIRD CARGO ARRIVES.

Steamer Heathcote Brings 3,500 Tons of Wabana Pig Iron.

The British steamer Heathcote, with a cargo of about 3,500 tons of Wabana pig iron has arrived at Philadelphia. This cargo represents the third of its kind to reach this country in recent weeks.

The iron is to be applied on orders taken some time ago by the representative of the country of the Dominion Iron & Steel Company.

LOTS OF ORE.

No Effort Made to Rush Stocks to the Furnaces Just Now.

Stocks of iron ore on Lake Erie docks as of May 1, aggregated 5,722, 727 tons against 5,457,741 tons for that date last year. There is no disposition manifest among the ore producing companies to hurry downward shipments, as there are yet large stocks of ore at the furnaces.

One price have been fixed at 1912 figures, which are lower than those for 1913 by 50 to 65 cents the ton.

BROOKLYN TABERNACLE

WE ARE UNPROFITABLE SERVANTS.

Luke 17:1-10—May 24.
 "We that are servants, let him glory in the Lord."

COFA'S lesson is in four sections, each apparently distinct and separate. Nevertheless, they manifest the wisdom from above. We shall consider them in their order.

Our Influence Upon Others.
 The word influence signifies stamping, engrafting, impressing. Jesus' consecrated followers are called little ones, because they are new creatures, started in the way of full consecration to God's will. However, there should be growth in grace, knowledge, love. Strength of character should be attained, which would be not only wise, strong, difficult to remove, but able also to assist others in their growth.

The danger of engraftment exists because Satan has the majority of mankind more or less under his influence—blinded by error, superstition, etc. "The god of this world has blinded the minds of them that believe not" (2 Corinthians 4:4). That Jesus did not refer to infants is manifest from the words, "One of these little ones which believe to Me."—Matt. 18:10. Jesus would not unjustly condemn anybody for ignorantly or unintentionally offending His followers. We must suppose that He meant to caution those who would deliberately attempt to deceive, entrap, discourage, His little ones. We are all heirs of dominion, intelligent plotting against the Lord's followers. To whatever extent this may prevail, it has indicated the satanic spirit.

One drowned in the sea would lose merely his present life. During the Millennium, after he had been awakened from the death sleep, he would have full opportunity for recovery from sin and death. But those who intelligently persecute Jesus' followers so degrade themselves morally that it will be more difficult for them to come into accord with the New Dispensation. Whoever sins against knowledge endangers his opportunities for life everlasting.

A Forgiving Spirit Necessary.
 Verses 3 and 4 are apparently a part of the discourse recorded in Matthew 18:15-22. The lesson is for Jesus' followers, not the world, as shown by the injunction that, if necessary, the matter come before the Church. The basis of the argument is that all need Divine mercy, because all are fallen, and that to assist us to cultivate this grace the Lord has arranged that His blessings shall be dependent upon our endeavor to exercise this Godlike quality.

It seems strange that our forefathers and ourselves were so deceived by what St. Paul calls "superstitions of devils" (1 Timothy 4:1) that once we thought of our Heavenly Father as absolutely unforgiving because His human creatures had sinned. We insisted that the wage of sin must be eternal torment. How little we understood the real character of the God of all grace, the Father of mercies!

Faith Power—Credulity Power.
 A great deal which passes for faith is mere credulity. The faith commanded in the Bible relates to things which God has promised. We are encouraged not to question His ability to accomplish all His good promises. Our forefathers had too much confidence in men. They swallowed the creeds of the Dark Ages; and the more absurd the proposition, the more faith they thought they had. They should have said, "Where has God declared such things?" Those who defended the creeds cried out against sober faith, branded it heresy and burned the truly faithful at the stake.

In our lesson, Jesus' disciples asked Him to increase their faith. His reply is, "If ye have faith, ye shall say unto this mountain, Remove thee from hence, and thou shalt be removed." On two other occasions He made similar remarks respecting mountains. Evidently the Master wished His disciples to realize that if they should receive a command from God to move mountains or trees into the sea, proper faith on their part would bring the desired result. But God gave no such command. Hence faith would have no basis for operation in such cases.

Some amongst Christ's followers are naturally progressive, aggressive or self-assertive. Barring His disciples, does not change these natural traits. Old things pass away gradually. These classes must remember that the work of God's grace is His favor toward them; and that obedience to His commands is primarily for their development.

We are all unprofitable servants, in that God graciously does without us. None of us is indispensable to His work or His glory. Quite the contrary, the opportunity for entering into the Lord's vineyard and laboring therein is chiefly for our own advantage. The service brings us experiences necessary for our qualification for higher service beyond the veil.

Sea Horses.
 In the Pacific Ocean sea horses attain a length of from ten to twelve inches, but seven inches is about the limit of those found in Atlantic waters.

THINGS ALL OUGHT TO KNOW

As Christian Bible Students—The Satisfactory Proof of "Why God Permits Evil."

One of the questions which comes to nearly every thinking mind today is, "Why does God permit evil?" As we look about us in the world we observe that it is filled with sorrow and trouble, sickness and pain and every trial we could imagine, and we cannot help wondering WHY GOD ALLOWS IT. We realize that He is almighty and that He could prevent it if He wished. We read in His Word that He is more willing to do for His children than are earthly parents for theirs, and we know how much that means; yet of tentacles it seems that those who try to do and live right have the most trouble. This question is made very clear in a book entitled, "The Divine Plan of the Ages." Every statement is backed by Scripture, and shows that while God does not sanction evil HE HAS HAD A PURPOSE IN ALLOWING SIN AND DEATH TO REIGN THESE SIX THOUSAND YEARS. This and many other subjects of deep interest to all of God's people are discussed fully and in language easy of comprehension.

Hancock and Gwinnett.
 Probably John Hancock is the best known signer of the Declaration of Independence. That is because that patriot was not ignorant of the value of advertising. One has to stand some distance from a framed copy of the Declaration to be unable to read that name, which has passed into our language as a synonym for "signature." There are many signatories of the Declaration who are remembered, many who are forgotten, but Button Gwinnett lingers in our memory. It is not altogether easy to imagine a man named Button by his parents as a patriot and a man of influence. His name was enough to single him out in that sober company. But his fame rests secure on something else. History takes account of men for various reasons, but Button is important because he was apparently cautious about signing his name. His autographs are more valuable today than Hancock's because so few of them are in existence. Perhaps it was hard work for Button to sign his name—American Boy.

How Tolstoy Made His Will.
 How Tolstoy made his will is told in the annual of the Tolstoy society by Alexei Sergejevo, who was one of the witnesses. On July 22, 1910, he was summoned by a lawyer, who said that Tolstoy wanted to make his will without an hour's delay. They rode away at once to the meeting place, a mile from Tolstoy's home. He met them and led the way into a dense forest. In the thickest part of all, the narrative continues, "we stopped at a big stump of a tree. Tolstoy sat down on the stump, took a fountain pen from his pocket and asked for a sheet of paper. With feet crossed he began to make the rough sketch of his will." It was completed, signed and witnessed then and there, and then "he rose, and going to his horse said to me, 'How gladly all this legal business is!'" With a healthy remark in a man of eighty-two he swung himself into the saddle and vanished quickly in the dark greenery of the undergrowth.

"The Wide and Winding Rhine."
 From a guidebook published in Frankfurt-on-the-Main the following is taken:

The Rhine, a boundary stone of the German history, is only and solely of the kind. On his banks one meets the vestiges of past civilization, we find there traces of its regeneration and of the modern civilization of which children we are. Various impressions make noise in us so many different emotions, so that a profound enthusiasm gets place in us. On the one hand the works of the hand of art, and on the other the imposing curiosities of nature combine themselves in the banks of the Rhine, crowned in vineyards, to an admirable symphony, in which we are touched all accents, shadowing the heart and the powerful accents of the profoundest emotion. Therefore, one cannot be astonished about it, that the Rhine has always given inspirations to many poets to most celebrated works.

The Cinque Ports.
 The lord wardenship of the cinque ports goes back to the Saxon period, when the five ports, Sandwich, Dover, Hythe, Romney and Hastings, constituted an essential part of England's defense against France. The warden was a highly important personage, who exercised civil, military and naval jurisdiction, being at once sheriff, custos, constable, lord lieutenant and admiral. Winchester and five in later days were added to the five towns, but the name remained cinque ports, as of old. In the days of the first Edward these ports were bound to furnish fifty-seven ships fully equipped and manned at their own cost for fifteen days, in consideration for which they were freed from certain taxes and enjoyed special privileges.—London Standard.

Consenting Silence.
 "Do you believe that silence gives consent, Dabney?" asked Gillingham. "Why, yes. The old saying says, 'so. Wuy?' said Dabney."

"Then you may congratulate me on my engagement to Miss Moneybags. I wrote to her asking her to marry me six months ago, and I haven't heard a word from her since."—Judge.

Men's $25 Hand-Tailored, All-Wool Blue Serge Suits $19.75

The $30 Grade Best Blue Serge . . $23.50    The $20 Grade Fine Blue Serge . . $14.85    The $15 Grade Good Blue Serge . . $11.25

These are the serges that we guarantee will give the right kind of service to the buyer. They have merit that puts them in a class apart from other serges equally priced. The textures are ALL-wool of a superior quality; the weaves are cable-strong, whether heavy or extra fine. The color is dark blue, guaranteed not to fade from sun rays or summer showers. Each suit, whatever its price, is modeled in the style of today. You have choice of plain, dignified models or of smart, English fashions. The suits are three-piece or Norfolk style; single or double-breasted. They are well-fitting suits, tailored by high-class workmen and only safe-grade materials are in them. They look well from the outside and are extra good inside. Trousers hang just so; collars hug the neck; sleeves and fronts are put in place and shaped by fingers and thumbs. Silk and linen-sewed seams; hand-worked button holes; perfectly-matched buttons and garment lines trim and neat.

WRIGHT-METZLER SERGE SUITS HAVE LONG BEEN THE PREFERENCE OF MEN WHO KNOW QUALITY. IF ANY SUIT MUST BE PERFECT IN FABRIC AND LINE—IT'S THE SERGE SUIT OF SUMMER. POOR TEXTURES SHOW THEIR WEAK SPOTS; ANY VARIATION IN THE DYE LOOMS UP ALARMINGLY. POORLY TAILORED, A SERGE SUIT SOON LOSES ITS SHAPE. YOU CAN PUT FULL DEPENDENCE IN THESE WRIGHT-METZLER SERGES AND BANK ON THEM SERVING SATISFACTORILY. IF A DEFECT DEVELOPS, BRING THE SUIT BACK INSTANTLY—IT WILL BE RIGHTED WITHOUT QUIBBLING. PRICES RARELY COME DOWN AS YOU SEE THEM, EARLY IN THE SEASON—BUT HERE THEY ARE, ACTUAL REDUCTIONS FROM FAIR, REGULAR RATES. SIZES FOR EVERY BODY.

About 150 pairs Men's blue serge trousers at $4 and $3.50 for the kinds regularly selling at $5 and $4.50. Well made of sound, color-fast heavy or fine weave serges.

We are discontinuing the line of Carhartt Overclothes. Remaining Garments are marked $1.75 the suit for the regular $2.00 and $2.50 grades, the latter in big sizes.

A Man Doesn't Choose a Traveling Bag for a Day

Instead, he looks ahead to years of hard service, and he has a right to expect it from a store such as this, that makes a point of knowing that the right kind of leather goes into every piece of luggage it sells.

Black cowhide bag of heavy leather. Sizes 18, 17, 16 inches. Leather lined. English-sunken lock and brass trimmings. Price $5.00. Full value $7.

Fibroid Suit Case. A tough, recently used substance resembling leather. Guaranteed to stand a strain of 500 pounds. Regular 21 inch size. Price $1.85. Full value, $2.50.

STRAW HATS should be bought now for a full season's wear. Here the best hats are in new shapes and American and foreign made. As always, values are extra good—the variety going ahead of the stocks in other stores. Special values at $1, $1.50 and $2. Finest hats $2.50 to $4. Panama hats in newer blocks, $5 and $10. There's becoming, full-crown shapes for elderly men, and the snappiest "boaters" for young men. Rough braids, split straws, fine and coarse sennits. Smooth and saw tooth edges. Clothing Store.

Pretty Novelty Garments for Little Boys

The "Dickens" suits are best known; but that is only one style. Colors and materials are used that were hardly thought of a little while ago, combining with new styles of cutting to effect bewitching suits. Prices on all suits begin at $1, and there is a wide choice between this and $6.50.

Beach suits, 50c to $1.50. Norfolk suits of linen or khaki, $5 each. Tanned and cotton pants, special values, 50c to $1.00.

One hundred pair of boys' Wool Pants, 39c. These remain from a big purchase, specially priced, 50c. —A week-end bargain!

WITH a statement of the facts regarding the extent of choice, character of the clothes--their worth and desirability--we leave it to you who know the store, to decide whether it's a golden opportunity or not. The selling started Thursday, this week.

There are suits for every possible occasion of dress-utility or formal wear. The sizes and models are for misses, junior and women of regular or uncommon build. The garments are from reliable makers, some of note, whose creations are very elaborate and original. But all the suits in stock are not thus distinguished—we have two-piece garments decidedly practical, with elegant lines charmingly simple; and there's models between the two extremes—clever suits that can be worn frequently without losing in interest to the wearer.

The textures and trimmings: linings and finish, are rich and beautiful. The perfect weaves are plain or fancy and colored exquisitely. Every color-tone in vogue this season is represented as well as the most of the odd, unusual weaves.

Of great importance to modish dressers is this fact: Every garment in stock is a 1914 spring and summer model. No suits were carried over from last season. We believe that no other store here can bear out a like statement. The oldest suit we have is not three months in stock—if any remain from those first to arrive. You will find advance late summer models in this collection—suits not yet shown elsewhere; and SILK suits—copied from the models of celebrated designers.

You who seek truly fine clothes, will find them here at prices that will not buy garments of like fashionableness, nor equal texture goodness, anywhere else in town.

Here, suit assortments offer the best choice of refined, in-fashion apparel. Such is the intention of this better store. To hold the interest of a critical, style-schooled patronage, our Floor of Fashions must present, the instant it is approved, each vogue of the moment. We are doing it, and letting the very newest things go for even LOWER prices than are asked elsewhere for things without the merit of quality or recent fashion newness.

COKERS WALK OFF WITH UNIONTOWN; NOW LEAD LEAGUE

None of the Other Teams Could Make It Two Straight.

HARD HITTING WINS CONTEST

Visitors Unable to Do Anything With McGuire and Final Score is 9 to 1; Cokers Go to County Seat This Afternoon and Open 2-Game Series.

Again it was Connellville, this time by the score of 9 to 1 and Uniontown, crushed and seemingly hopeless is considering a considering a proposition to fire the whole team and put Fred Palgo, the well-meaning manager, in jail. Indeed if Palgo escapes hanging it will be very unlike Uniontown.

Just think! Two games from Uniontown on two successive days and the second one by such an overwhelming score as 9 to 1. There is indeed cause for murmurs in the Uniontown camp. Their representatives gave a wretched exhibition at all times, while the Cokers played real baseball in all but the first inning.

McGuire has himself to blame for not getting the trophy offered for the twirler pitching the first shut-out game. In the first inning with three men on base he issued a pass and forced in Uniontown's only score. After that he was practically invincible. He worked like a real pitcher and had the game in hand at all times. Up to the ninth he had allowed but four hits. In that round, however, he slowed up and two more bingles were recorded. Baughman, the active little catcher, again started at bat with a perfect average, getting three hits and a sacrifice fly in four times up. He also caught a nice game.

McGuire got himself into an awful hole in the first when Wesel got on when Gettle fumbled. Kerfoot got a hit, and Miller received a life on Meyer's bunt. Then with two strikes and three balls on Hubbard and two out, McGuire threw on high and wide for the fourth ball forcing in Wesel with the visitor's first and only run. A pass to Cherry and a double by Francis to left, evened up things in the Cokers' half of the first, but in the second came the big things came. A base on balls to Byron, followed by Byron's double, Hopwood's error on Enloe's long fly, Ball's tumble on McGuire and Meyer's sacrifice, coupled with Miller's error on the throw to first put four runs across the plate.

The recital of how the others were made would only add to Uniontown's chagrin. Suffice it to say that one came in the third, another in the fifth and two in the eighth. Danley who started for Uniontown pitched but two innings. He was succeeded by Kerfoot who was not so poor, but not so very good either.

The score:

MUST FURNISH LIGHT.
Board Holds Coal Companies are Public Service Concerns.

A preliminary writ of mandamus was recently awarded by the Supreme Court of West Virginia against the White Oak Fuel Company at Scarboro W. Va., compelling it to furnish electricity for lighting purposes to all citizens in the town.

This decision of the court places all coal companies whose plants furnish electricity under the definition of public-service corporations compelling the payment of a legal-service corporation tax and other legal requirements for such concerns.

Surprising Cure of Stomach Trouble.
Jacob Hindelang of Chelsea, Mich., was ill with stomach trouble and in such bad shape that he lived for two months on linewater and milk. He then began using Chamberlain's Tablets. He says: "I am seventy-six years of age but never in my life used any medicine that cured in such a short time as Chamberlain's Tablets." For sale by all dealers.—Adv.

No Cause for Pessimism Over Poor Showing in Western Maryland

Despite the unfavorable showing made by analysts of recently published statements of the Western Maryland road, there does not appear to be ground for pessimism regarding the property's future, nor for apprehension regarding its solvency. The results of nine months' operations during the current fiscal year were an accumulation of approximately $1,125,000 toward the payment of fixed charges for the year, amounting to $2,250,000, and while the net earnings of the last quarter which has some six weeks yet to run, will add appreciably to that sum, it is certain that the deficit that will be shown to exist on June 30 will amount to nearly or quite $750,000.

It is known that the road can earn good profits if efficiently managed, and appears to be the case now, where there is little likelihood that the Rockefeller interests that own a majority of the stock, which cost them, together with interest, about 55 per share, will permit the property to default payment of the interest on its bonds for lack of funds. The bonds outstanding amount to $45,000,000.

At present the road is in a transitional state, but President C. R. Gray appears to be evolving some measure of order out of what for a time was hopeless chaos and as an indicator, by means of improved bondlines has increased the average freight train earnings 45 cents per mile over those obtaining a year since. And simplification is being accomplished in other directions, while operating divisions are being re-organized and a general improvement of operating and traffic methods is being made.

Reports received by the Bureau of Mines from state mine inspectors show that there were 165 men killed in and about the coal mines in the United States during February 1914, as compared with 205 during the same month of 1913.

There were no large accidents during February, 1914. During the corresponding month of 1913 there were 208 accidents. The total number of fatalities during the first two months of 1914 was 361, as compared with 441 for the corresponding period of 1913.

SOME SECOND HALF COKE SELLING UNDER $2 BUT THE OLD GUARD IS STANDING PAT

On the Minimum Established and Declared by Them and

WILL EVENTUALLY REALIZE PRICE

Common Belief in Buying and Selling Circles That Fourth Quarter Coke Will Sell Higher Than the Third. Foundry Contract Coke Looking Up.

From The Weekly Courier.

PITTSBURGH May 20.—The market for second half furnace coke has been quietly opened up with sales at less than $2, involving a considerable tonnage. How much below $2 has been done is not known, but it is well understood that the concession was more than five or ten cents.

The prominent operators who have been holding a minimum of $2 on either prompt or contract coke are reported to be adhering to this figure, though they have not very actively solicited any business. There are rumors that one selling interest might make a concession of five cents a ton, but this cannot be confirmed and it seems to be the common belief that the old guard are still on the $2 basis, and with expectations that eventually they will be able to obtain this figure after a few nervous sellers have booked the business they seem to need.

It seems to be the joint opinion of both buyers and sellers of coke that the market will be stronger for fourth quarter than for third quarter. Buyers who are willing to negotiate are more ready to close for the half year at a given price than for a third quarter alone at the same figure. Sellers in turn are willing to quote somewhat greater concessions for the third quarter than for the whole half year.

Frequently odd lots of spot furnace coke of fair grade are offered at special prices without finding takers, and it is difficult to quote the spot market except from day to day. An eastern furnace interest which has taken regular deliveries of furnace coke on open contract, terminable at will, at $2 has discontinued the shipments and made a similar arrangement elsewhere at a lower price, reported to be $1.55. The holder of the original contract absolutely refused to make the necessary concession, preferring to lose the business.

The contract market for foundry coke is beginning to look up. For some time past odd lots of fair grade foundry coke have been available at $2.50 and down to $2.35, but the important foundry coke producers, who were making deliveries on regular contracts at $2.75 to $2.85, refused to consider such prices and held to a minimum of $2.75, which in the current market was virtually nominal. In the last few days some of these interests have modified their asking prices to $2.55, and for the present at least are firm on this price as to contracts for the twelve months beginning July 1. The general market stands quotable approximately as follows:

One of the merchant blast furnaces at Detroit went out of blast last week and there are rumors that one or two more important stacks will blow out. The steel works interests continue to blow out furnace at intervals as their pig iron production has been in excess of their consumption by reason of the continued decrease in steel mill operations. The pig iron market is showing a little more activity. In foundry iron there are many more inquiries than a month ago, but they are still for small tonnages. The United States Steel Company at Canton recently bought 10,000 tons of basic iron from Cleveland furnaces, at low prices while the American Steel foundry is now negotiating for 5,000 or 10,000 tons. Much better business in basic iron is reported from the east. The local market is unchanged: Bessemer $14, basic $13. No 2 foundry, $14.50 to $15.50. No 1 foundry, $15.50 to $16.50. Valley furnace, 90 cents higher delivered Pittsburgh.

COAL TRADE UNSETTLED

Consumers Gain Consciousness from Pittsburgh District Operators.

Consumers of bituminous coal in the Pittsburgh district have been able to obtain attractive concessions the last fortnight, and the market for contract delivery shows irregularity and uncertainty. Despite curtailed operations in this district, there appears to be more than enough coal to meet demands. Little operations since April 1 have been decidedly light, practically all the mines having been idle since that time. Nevertheless, operators have offered fuel for prompt shipment at rather low figures.

Because of the wide range in prices it is difficult to quote the market with any degree of accuracy. Black being held at 90 cents a ton by some interests, is being offered at 75 cents a ton by others. The market for prompt stock is quotable at a spread from 15 cents to 30 cents a ton. Run-of-mine is listed at a spread from $1.20 to $1.25 a ton, although desirable contracts have been taken at 5 cents less than the minimum figure. In a number of instances, in fact, the $1.15 figure has been shaded in isolated cases. Three-quarters inch is quotable at from $1.10 to $1.15 a ton and 1 1/2-inch is listed at a spread from $1.50 to $1.55 a ton at the mine in the Pittsburgh district.

MINER IS FINED.

Failure to Set a Post in Dangerous Point Costs $25.

When assigned by a justice on information made by Inspector Alexander McCann, Andy Pohl, a miner employed at the Black Diamond mine near Monaca, entered a plea of guilty to violating the mining laws. He had refused to obey an order to place a post at a dangerous point in one of the rooms.

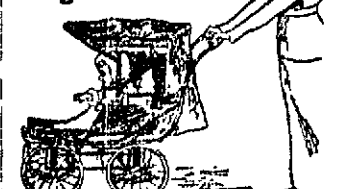

Pohl was sentenced to pay the costs and a fine of $25 or in default to undergo imprisonment for 90 days in the county jail.

WILL OPEN MINE.

Columbus Company, Developing Tract in Potomac District of Company of Columbus Co. opening two miles on the Kanawha & Michigan railroad about 1 1/2 miles apart in the Potomac district.

Two mines will have a combined capacity of 4,000 tons a day. About $150,000 is to be spent on improvements by the company, which expects to build about three miles of railroad.

PURE OLIVE OIL

Contains nearly 100% of nourishment, while the next most nutritious grain contains less than 90%, and vegetables very much less. Two tablespoonfuls of Pure Olive Oil contain more nourishment than one pound of meat, and does not overtax the digestive organs. The food value of Pure Olive Oil—providing the quality is right—has no equal, and its nutritive qualities are quickly assimilated by the system and transformed into healthy flesh.

To get the best Olive Oil one must be very particular as to what brand he buys, for all Olive Oils are neither pure nor of first quality. You will never buy any other brand of Olive Oil once you have purchased Olivess.

STEEL CORPORATION EMPLOYE SUPPORTS THE 12-HOUR SHIFT

Declares Workers Themselves are Responsible for Its Adoption.

ATTENDS STOCKHOLDERS' MEET

Worker From the Pittsburgh Mills Resents Charges Made by Muckrakers and Declares Conditions are Greatly Exaggerated by the Socialists.

"If some of those gentlemen who pretend to be the great friends of the working man would investigate carefully they would not make such vicious charges as they do. We know what is being done, we know all of these things, and the men inside perhaps know better about some of the things than those on the outside. And the only confusion that I know of among the men today is this, they are wondering how to get the actual facts before the people. They are satisfied to trust public sentiment if it is properly informed.

"I think it amounts practically to a slander of the workers to give out the impression before the public that they do not appreciate these things.
Let us be fair and give to labor what belongs to it. Money is not the only thing that belongs to labor."

These are not the utterances of a captain but of a working man, a 12-hour day worker. They are extracted from the speech of Edwin R.
Smith, a sheet iron heater employed by the United States Steel Corporation,
they express the feeling of the speaker and as he declared of his associates, they are the undistorted efforts of those who either through ignorance of the actual facts or for political reasons misrepresent the conditions governing the employment of labor,
says Financial America.

They express moreover a natural resentment of the free and independent American worker against being held up to the public gaze as a weak, ignorant and dissatisfied creature driven by his master to perform a dull strength-taking stint in order to pay into the lap of the employer riches in which he has no part or share.

"His resentment was summed up by Mr. Smith when he said: 'I am satisfied that you would find a great majority of the men are very good citizens. I am satisfied you would find that out if you had the way they are handled. The critics as a rule many of them are honest in their intentions but their misrepresentations to the lazzaroni, and then we are held up to the world under the name of although we are Americans.'"

Comments quoted above were made by Mr. Smith at the annual meeting of the United States Steel Company in April 20. This meeting, it is pointed out, is having no parallel in the history of the corporation. It is the first time since its organization in 1901 that the stockholders have been called upon to elect officers or to ratify the action of the board of directors. The corporation is the largest in the world and its workers are refusing the charges that had been made against the corporation by social reformers that it overworked and underpaid its employees.

The sincerity of the different workers who spoke at the meeting men who were also stockholders of the corporation was not doubted by any one who heard them or by those who are familiar with the facts. As the head of a large independent steel company said in commenting on the meeting: "I have not the faintest doubt that those men came to the meeting entirely of their own accord
and were sincere in what they said.
I know what the corporation has done for improving the condition of the steel worker."

Several of the men who spoke at the meeting were men who worked 12 hours a day. The 12-hour day shift has ever been the strongest feature of the corporation and the steel companies generally. It would be friends of the worker. These long hours which are supposed to sap the health and strength of the men forced to endure them did not seem to have wrought any injury in the cases of the speakers and they themselves testified that the work was neither very hard nor continuous.

Mr. Smith took the occasion to point out that it was the worker himself who had insisted upon the institution of a 12-hour day. He declared that the refusal of the companies to grant a 12-hour day would often have been a sufficient cause for a walkout. He said:

"It helped to establish it, and every workingman who helped to build up the iron business helped to establish
it. Let us be fair let us put the blame
where it belongs."

If there was any significance in the events of the meeting it lay in the fact that the stand taken by the workmen indicates the growing spirit of cooperation between capital and labor and the realization on the part of the real worker that the solution of his problem is to be found in such co-operation in a mutual give and take.

As suggested before the meeting was one of the ordinary, and not the least unusual feature was the appearance of a player by Samuel H.
Watland another workman an innovation which had an almost startling
effect upon the stockholders present, accustomed as stockholders are either to meetings entirely formal or taken up with angry and heated debate.

Steel Plant Activity.
The United States Steel Corporation's latest operations are unchanged at 65 to 70 per cent. Some of the largest steel works are more than 70 per cent active and a few reach 80 per cent.

REBUILDS STAKES

Cambria Steel Company is rebuilding
all its blast furnaces.

The Cambria Steel Company is rebuilding and enlarging all of the blast
furnaces at its Johnstown works.
When the work is completed, eight furnaces will have been remodeled.
In order to avoid shutting down the plant reconstruction is being forward on two furnaces at a time, and the work will not be completed for some months. Most of the machine shop work is being done in the company's own plant but a large tonnage of castings and miscellaneous material will be purchased.

ARE OUT FOR WORK

Two Steel Negotiations Started for Year's Delivery.

Negotiations for about 15,000 tons of Connellsville furnace coke a month delivery extending over the year, beginning July 1, have been opened.
Although it is not made known what price operators will offer to get this business it is apparent some accrued not to quote beyond third quarter.

The laundry coke market is slightly weaker but several leading sellers of standard grades at Connellsville still are getting $2.75 a ton.

SUNDAY CHARGE FOUGHT

Crucible Steel Company Claims Demurrage Tax is Illegal.

Reparation of $1,042 paid as demurrage to the Pennsylvania company by the Pittsburgh Crucible Steel Company of Midland on 6,754 cars on Sundays and holidays during September and October 1913 is sought in a complaint filed by the steel company with the Interstate Commerce Commission.

The total demurrage charges on these cars for those two months was $2,507. It is contended that this charge for Sundays and holidays included as part of the demurrage in-not in accordance with the demurrage tariff.

TIMBER PRESERVATION.

German Expert is Here to Study
American Methods.

Dr. J. K. Mohr who is a German specialist in timber preservation, has been touring this country for the purpose of inspecting American plants and methods.

He reports that practically all ties
and poles used in Germany are now treated and that the process is rapidly coming into use for mine timbers.
